

FISHY BREXIT ON FIRE MATSYA STYLE

Sweet, sour, dark and spicy – that’s what Brexit is to us – At Matsya, it’s a topic on fire.

Components of the dish

Tempura Chilli Gram Flour batter

Chocolate Chilli Tartare sauce

Chilli Chocolate sauce

Matsya Masala fries

Caramelized Lime

Set on fire London Dry Gin

£100.00 (Large Portion)

£22.00 (Small Portion without fire on Dish)

Food Allergies and Intolerances: Before ordering please speak to our staff about your requirements All prices are inclusive of VAT. A discretionary Service Charge of 12.5% will be added to your bill.

Post Brexit negotiations about future relations between the UK and the EU are taking place now. Both sides hope they can agree within six months on the outline of future relations on things like trade, travel and security. Meanwhile, UK businesses cannot agree on whether Brexit has been good for business, life as they know it and their relative position in the geopolitics of the situation.

Overheard conversations in Bars, Pubs, Clubs, offices and public places in general hints towards a bitter sweet confusion at the conundrum raised by Brexit. It's surely a topic on fire! In the midst of this political storm, Chef Manu Mohindra and Chef Uttam at Matsya decided to use their culinary skills to create a dish which embodies the mood of the moment.

Sweet but sour, dark and slightly spicy- that's what Brexit means to most people and at Matsya we have use those emotions to create- FISHY BREXIT ON FIRE MATSYA STYLE. The quintessential British Fish & Chips redone. Crispy Fish in a Tempura style Chilli Gram Flour Batter with a side of Chocolate Chili Tartare, Chili Chocolate Sauce, Matsya Masala Fries, Caramelized Lime and finally set on Fire with good old London Dry Gin. Since Brexit has not come cheap to the average UK resident and citizen, the dish too is cheekily priced at GBP100.00 for its posh Mayfair location.

So while politicians and economists debate on the way forward we remain mindful to the peoples interests and offer a solo portion of our Fishy Brexit on Fire at GBP22.00 ++.